

Trusted self-service background screening for Chick-fil-A operators

When you background check your applicants and employees, you invest in the safety of your customers and team members, protect the Chick-fil-A brand, and reduce the risk of costly mistakes. SterlingNow is delighted to help Chick-fil-A operators hire with confidence.

- Create an account and order your first background check in under 5 minutes
- Three screening packages, with no setup fees or required monthly subscription-pay per background check
- Rigorous searches reach far beyond the national database searches other providers rely on
- Advanced technology completes 66% of criminal searches in under an hour, and 90% within a day
- Screening is designed for FCRA compliance
